GOAL 3: A Model Local, Regional, and Global University

Objective 2:
To strengthen the crucial role that the University of Hawaii system performs for the indigenous people and general population of Hawaii by actively preserving and perpetuating Hawaiian culture, language, and values.

Institutional Learning Outcomes
• Connect with their communities and contribute to the creation of healthy communities;
• Connect with their communities in a culturally competent manner that respects diversity and Hawaiian culture and values;
• Connect with their natural environments and create sustainability

Goal 4: Cultivate, sustain and reflect that is rooted in the indigenous history of Hawai‘i

Priority action 4.2:
Promote multicultural fluency through learning, training, research, and exchange opportunities for students, faculty and staff to develop awareness and knowledge of self and others, and skills for effective interaction, communication, leadership, and organizational change.

Aloha mai kākou,

It is our distinct pleasure to invite you to participate in a weekend structured to provide you with foundational and cultural knowledge in your development as a leader.

Wahipana o Hilo aims to orient you as the individual in relation to our Hilo community, amongst our sacred geographies, and alongside faculty, staff, and students from Hawai‘i Community College and the University of Hawai‘i at Hilo. The ‘Aha‘aha Leadership Summit is designed to scaffold your development as a leader in higher education within a cultural context.

We look forward to receiving your RSVP to attend the following activities:
