

Heyum Endowment Fund Scholarship for 2007-2008

The Heyum Endowment Fund was established by the late R. Renée Heyum, former Curator of the Pacific Collection, Hamilton Library, to assist Pacific Islanders pursuing education and/or training in Hawai'i. Funds are available to support one scholarship in the amount of $3,000 for the 2007–2008 academic year, and qualified individuals are invited to apply.

Who can apply?

Applicants must be

- indigenous to the islands of Melanesia, Micronesia, or Polynesia; and
- enrolled full time for academic credit as graduate or undergraduate students at a campus of the University of Hawai'i.
- Pacific Island students enrolled in non-credit education and/or training programs may also be considered for assistance.

Selection criteria

The selection committee will review each applicant's

- academic performance,
- potential to make a contribution to their country of origin, and
- need for financial support.

Application Process

Applicants must submit

- a letter of application that includes a statement describing academic interests, career goals, need for support, and a plan of study for the 2007-2008 academic year;
- relevant transcripts of previous academic work; and
- three letters of recommendation.

Applicants are responsible to contact their referees and arrange for letters to be mailed directly to the Director, Center for Pacific Islands Studies (address below).

Applications are due on June 15, 2007 and should be addressed to Professor David Hanlon
Director, Center for Pacific Islands Studies, UH Mānoa
1890 East-West Road, Moore 215, Honolulu, HI 96822