Why does the county have to pay for Councilman Higa’s actions?

What were the political pressures that contributed to the disaster? Who was involved?

How were the political pressures manifested (how was administrative power wielded)?