

Estimated International Student Budget: 2017-2018

The amounts listed below in US dollars reflect the average estimated cost of attending the University of Hawaii at Hilo for the academic year: 2017-18. Your actual costs may vary depending on your living arrangements and spending habits.

The required costs are the required student fees that pay for campus facilities and activities. Fees for the academic year are fixed expenses and are subject to change with University of Hawaii Board of Regents approval. Estimated personal expenses, transportation costs and off-campus meals and housing are not amounts you pay the University but they are included to help you plan for these expenses.

(Estimations are based on one-year tuition)
