

The University of Hawai'i Hilo is reknown for its cultural diversity, which is vibrantly reflected in the Entering Class of 2017-18. Our dynamic programs draw students from across Hawai'i, the Pacific, and the world, creating academic and social opportunities that can be found nowhere else on earth. If there was ever a place to be inspired, this is it. Join us, and find what inspires you...

CLASS SIZE
Applicants:	3,022
Accepted:	2,430
Enrolled:	1,047
STUDENT TYPE
Freshmen:	420
Transfer:	432
Returning:	76
Unclassified:	34
Exchange Students:	84
INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS 	62
HIGH SCHOOL GPA (Mean) 	3.4
 MALE: 35%	FEMALE: 64%
ETHNICITY:
Hawaiian & Pacific Islander	33%
Caucasian	27%
Asian	18%
Mixed	14%
Hispanic	4%
African American	2%
Other	2%

Top 5 Majors

- Business Administration
- Kinesiology
- Psychology
- Biology
- Marine Science

New Graduate Students

 183

(includes Daniel K. Inouye College of Pharmacy students)

Pre-Nursing + 118

Pre-Engineering 11

Early College/Running Start

 52

(estimate pending final registration)

International Representation

France
 South Korea
 Marshall Islands
 Palau
 United Kingdom
 Japan
 Canada
 Micronesia
 New Zealand
 China

WUE Program Students

 133

