The University of Hawai‘i Hilo is renowned for its cultural diversity, which is vibrantly reflected in the Entering Class of 2018-19. Our dynamic programs draw students from across Hawai‘i, the Pacific, and the world, creating academic and social opportunities that can be found nowhere else on earth. If there was ever a place to be inspired, this is it. Join us, and find what inspires you...

Class Size
- Applicants: 3,053
- Accepted: 2,444
- Enrolled: 983

Student Type
- Freshmen: 413
- Transfer: 347
- Returning: 83
- Unclassified: 67
- Exchange Students: 73

International Students: 93

High School GPA (Mean)
- 3.5

Ethnicity:
- Male: 34%
- Female: 66%

Top 5 Majors
- Business Administration
- Marine Science
- Biology
- Psychology
- Kinesiology

New Graduate Students
- 207
  - (includes Daniel K. Inouye College of Pharmacy students)

Pre-Nursing
- + 125

Pre-Engineering
- 8

Early College/Running Start
- 90
  - (estimate pending final registration)

International Representation
- United Kingdom
- Norway
- Canada
- Palau
- Marshall Islands
- Japan
- South Korea
- New Zealand

Undergraduates (numbers as of 1st day of classes - August 20, 2018)
- Hawai‘i Residents: 66%
- Hawai‘i Island: 511
  - O‘ahu: 112
  - Maui: 23
  - Kauai: 16
  - Moloka‘i: 5
- States Represented: 36
- Top Five States
  - Hawai‘i
  - California
  - Colorado
  - Washington
  - Oregon

Class Size
- Applicants: 3,053
- Accepted: 2,444
- Enrolled: 983