Join the Three Mountain Alliance, the Volcano Art Center and the University of Hawai‘i’s PRISM Program for this exciting day of creativity, blending the sciences with creative expression! This workshop features curriculum and activities integrating science, Hawaiian culture and art. Workshop is open to all educators.

Featured Activities Include:
❖ Explore the land and sea connections found in the Kumulipo (Hawaiian Creation Chant).
❖ Investigate traditional knowledge by learning ‘Ōlelo No‘eau which feature native Hawaiian plants and animals.
❖ Interpret what you learn into your own artistic masterpiece.
❖ Explore the ecosystems found in a watershed through a lesson designed by the U.H. Hilo PRISM Program which meets DOE standards.
❖ Learn how to make “kapa” with your students using paper bags.

And of course, learn how to involve your class in the 2010 Hawai‘i Nei Juried Art Exhibition celebrating native species! This juried art show of mixed media is open to all professional and amateur artists (of all ages) of Hawai‘i Island.
