Application for Enrollment in Summer Program for High School Sophomores and Juniors
UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII AT HILO • SUMMER SESSION

Who May Apply
High school sophomores and juniors who have:
- the ability to do university-level study
- the maturity and motivation required to complete demanding accelerated coursework
- normally 2.5 or higher G.P.A.
- PSAT scores over 43V/40M

A. Summer Application Procedure
1. Review the Summer catalog and select a lower division course, usually numbered 100-199 and 200-299.
2. Have your parent or guardian complete the Parental Approval portion of the Summer Application Form.
3. Give the form to your school counselor or principal along with a stamped envelope addressed to:
   UHH - CCECS
   200 W. Kawai Street
   Hilo, HI 96720-4091

   The school counselor or principal completes the School Recommendation portion of this form and sends it, along with your transcript, high school GPA and SAT or PSAT score (if available) to the Continuing Education Office.
4. Your application is not complete until the supporting material (Application Form with recommendation, school transcript, and GPA) have been received by the College of Continuing Education and Community Service (CCECS). Notification will be sent to you after evaluation (normally within two weeks).

B. Summer Registration Procedure
1. After your Enrollment and Residency forms have been processed you are ready to register. See summer catalog for registration information.
2. If you have any problems with registration, call CCECS at 974-7664.
