UH Hilo Diversity Committee Call for Proposals

The Committee supports events and activities that contribute to the following:

- Developing a Shared and Inclusive Environment
- Understanding Diversity
- Creating a welcoming campus climate
- Recruiting and retaining a diverse student body
- Recruiting and retaining a diverse workforce
- Developing curriculum that fosters intercultural and international competencies
- Diversifying university leadership, administration and management
- Coordinating organizational change to support our diversity goals
- Implementation of the University of Hawaii, Hilo’s strategic actions related to diversity
- Monitoring and assessing campus climate

Proposals need to address the following:

- Strategic Plan: How the event or activity helps to facilitate the mission of the committee as it is articulated in the UH Hilo Strategic Plan 2011-2015
- Impact: What groups will benefit? How?
- Assessment: How will success be measured?

All funded proposals must submit their assessments within three weeks of the conclusion of the event and/or activity.

Submit Proposals to:
The UHH Chancellor’s Office
Attn: UHH Diversity Committee Dana-Lynn Koomoa and Zachary Street

UH Hilo Diversity Funds are awarded on a competitive basis.

For events and activities in the Fall semester, proposals should be submitted by 5PM on September 1, or the first Monday of September (if September 1 is on a weekend). For events and activities in the Spring semester, proposals should be submitted by 5PM on December 1, or the first Monday of December (if December 1 is on a weekend).
