Nonresident Enrollment Policy Briefing

Campus ceilings for nonresident (NR) enrollments are:
- 30% at baccalaureate campuses
- 15% at community colleges

The base for determining ceilings is projected campus headcount enrollment (excludes active duty military personnel stationed in Hawai‘i and their authorized dependents). (Oct. 18, 2002)
Reasons for Policy Review

- Compliance
- Student concern regarding NR preference
- Legislative interest: resolutions entertained
- BOR request

Policy Context

- First established in 1970’s Controlled Growth Policy
- Revised in 2002, as Section 11 in Academic Affairs, Admissions (cap unchanged)
- Differential admissions policies may be established for resident and NR students
- In establishing admissions criteria for NRs, the campuses shall utilize the following principles:
Principles

- A public university’s first responsibility is to provide higher education opportunities for qualified students from the community that supports it.
- No qualified resident applicant should be denied admission to the University system. Implementing this policy is a major responsibility of both the two- and four-year campuses.

At all campuses, but particularly at the Community Colleges, programs established for the explicit purpose of educating and training students to meet state manpower needs have a special obligation to admit qualified residents who can reasonably be expected to remain in the state upon graduation.

Nonresident Categories

- Geographic origin
  - Mainland
  - International
  - Pacific Island jurisdictions

  Pacific Island jurisdictions include those that do not have baccalaureate granting public institutions (e.g., American Samoa, Northern Marianas, FSM, Palau, Marshall Islands, etc.).

- Tuition status
  - Full pay
  - Exempt
  - 150%

  By BOR policy, exempt refers to East West Center, active duty military & dependents, Hawai'i national guard & reservists, Native Hawaiians, UH faculty/staff who pay resident rates.

  150% refers to Pacific Islanders (BOR policy effective fall 2007) and Western Undergraduate Exchange (WUE) program who pay 150% of resident rates.

- Academic level
  - Undergraduate
  - Graduate
  - First professional

  First professional schools include Law, Medicine, Architecture, and Pharmacy.

Principles continued…

Graduate and professional programs have a special responsibility to admit the most qualified students while demonstrating that every effort is made to enroll resident applicants who compete favorably in the admissions process.

Professional programs at the four-year and graduate level must be cognizant of their responsibility to educate adequate numbers of resident professionals to serve state needs.

In addition to these numbers, qualified nonresidents who pay a higher tuition can enhance the mix.

What Other States / Campuses Do

- Limit by statute or policy
  - 9 states or systems limit nonresidents
    - Caps range from 10% to 45% (e.g., AZ: 30% undergrad; NC: 18% freshman class)
    - Kentucky Revised Statutes: 15% of the entering class in medicine, dentistry, and law schools
- No policy, but in practice, limit numbers
  - Savannah State U: 9% undergrad, 14% grad
  - SUNY Purchase: 20–22%
  - U of S Carolina Aiken: state prefers 20%
- Share based on revenue goals
  - Colorado State U: currently 18%; goal 25% by 2015
- Enrollment management strategy
  - U of California: 3–8% undergraduates

Four Policies Relevant to UH Admissions

- Nonresident enrollment
  - principles and the caps set by BOR policy
- Tuition policy
  - nonresident tuition rate set to cost of education
- Financial aid policy
  - share of tuition revenue used for nonresidents
- Housing policy
  - “to provide reasonable levels of accommodation for students who are residents of the state.” (BOR 7-5)
The purpose of the BOR admissions policy is “to provide for a mix of students while insuring preference for qualified Hawai‘i residents.” (BOR 5-11, 2002)

1. Do our current policies achieve the intended outcomes? i.e., the appropriate balance between resident and nonresident enrollments?
2. Are there other outcomes we wish to accomplish?
3. If so, what revisions to policy are needed to accomplish these outcomes?

Policy Alternatives

- Maintain policy as is
- Eliminate/raise cap (increase nonresidents)
- Lower cap (increase residents)
- Develop a policy that differentiates:
  - Between undergraduates and graduates
  - Among nonresidents (full pay, exempt, 150%)
  - Between graduate & professional schools
  - Eligibility for financial assistance
