University of Hawai’i at Hilo Study Abroad Application

International study is a life changing and rewarding experience for many students. We are pleased to know that you are considering incorporating international study into your University of Hawai’i at Hilo degree program and look forward to receiving your completed application.

This application will determine if you qualify for a study abroad experience with our direct international exchange programs or International Education Organization (IEO) programs. Only students who participate in a direct exchange program are able to pay tuition to UH Hilo. For all other programs students pay tuition and fees directly to the program. Please note that some programs have a language requirement.
