6. VISITING AND OTHER FACULTY

Except for those appointments outlined in the remaining paragraphs of this section, faculty members serving on the University staff temporarily, whether replacing a regular faculty member or otherwise, are designated as Visiting Professor (I5), Visiting Associate Researcher (R4), Visiting Assistant Agronomist (S3), etc.

Exchange Appointments
When members of the University of Hawai‘i arrange an exchange with a counterpart at another institution, the visitor to Hawai‘i carries the title Visiting _________ (Exchange). In an exchange, each party receives his/her salary from his/her "home" institution.

Lecturer
Non-resident faculty members teaching in the Summer Session and all appointments for teaching in Continuing Education carry the title of Lecturer.

Visiting Colleague
The title Visiting Colleague is used for scholars from other institutions who will spend some time on the University of Hawai‘i campus, generally doing research of their own. This is a non-compensated appointment conferring only the prestige of the appointment and limited courtesy services, such as library privileges, the right to purchase a parking permit and occasionally the use of office and laboratory facilities. The Visiting Colleague does no teaching.

Visiting Professional Colleague
A Visiting Professional Colleague is defined as one who is not functioning exclusively as either a member of the faculty or as a student. He/she may participate in the programs of an academic or research unit in various ways — e.g., giving occasional lectures or observing and being a fellow student. His/her stipend will be consonant with the salary he/she received in his/her native land, adjusted appropriately for living in Hawai‘i during his/her residence here.

Affiliate Graduate Faculty
The title Affiliate Graduate Faculty is a non-compensated appointment in the Graduate Division, usually given to people within the State of Hawai‘i with a particular interest or capability which may contribute to the teaching or research program of the University; except for occasional lectures or consulting with individual students, affiliate graduate faculty normally do not have any formal teaching responsibilities.
6. VISITING AND OTHER FACULTY

Except for those appointments outlined in the remaining paragraphs of this section, faculty members serving on the University staff temporarily, whether replacing a regular faculty member or otherwise, are designated as Visiting Professor (I5), Visiting Associate Researcher (R4), Visiting Assistant Specialist (S3), etc.

Exchange Appointments
When members of the University of Hawai‘i arrange an exchange with a counterpart at another institution, the visitor to Hawai‘i carries the title Visiting ________ (Exchange). In an exchange, each party receives his/her salary from his/her "home" institution.

Graduate Assistantships
A graduate assistantship is a half-time, non-tenurable academic position. Appointments may be either nine months or eleven months. There are two types: Graduate Teaching Assistants (GTAs) and Graduate Research Assistants (GRAs). Graduate Teaching Assistants may be assigned to teach undergraduate classes, assist in grading, advising, or administrative duties, or teach laboratory or discussions sessions. Graduate Research Associates assist faculty in research activities. Graduate Assistants must be full-time graduate students admitted or registered in a graduate program for an advanced degree.

Lecturer
Lecturers are persons employed for short-term teaching assignments, including semester and/or summer sessions, usually on a part-time basis.

Visiting Colleague
The title Visiting Colleague is used for scholars from other institutions who will spend some time on the University of Hawai‘i campus, generally doing research of their own. The Visiting Colleague does no teaching.

Visiting Professional Colleague
A Visiting Professional Colleague is defined as one who is not functioning exclusively as either a member of the faculty or as a student. He/she may participate in the programs of an academic or research unit in various ways - e.g., giving occasional lectures or observing and being a fellow student.

Affiliate Faculty
Affiliate Faculty applies to non-university personnel who have a demonstrated professional expertise and are enlisted to perform temporary teaching, research, or administrative functions that cannot be satisfactorily performed by current employees. Affiliate appointments are recommended by the appropriate academic department/schools and approved by the Dean and Chancellor.